AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th Day of April, 1770;

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, a Letter from Keith Urquhart, Sheriff Depute of the County of Banff in Scotland, to the Lord Justice Clerk, and a Copy of a Letter from Theophilus Ogilvie, Collector of the Customs at Aberdeen, to the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland; containing Information, that an infectious Distemper had broke out amongst the Horned Cattle in and about the Town of Portsoy in the said County of Banff; —That the Sheriff Depute, and several of the Justices of the Peace of the said County, did, upon hearing thereof, meet together, to consider what was fit to be done; That, upon Enquiry, finding that the Infection was spreading, and that Cattle belonging to several different Persons, had died of the Distemper, they came to the Resolution of ordering all the Cattle in and about the Town of Portsoy to be appretiated; and to order them to be killed and buried, after giving Assurance to the Owners of an Indemnification for the Loss of their Cattle; and that their Orders had been accordingly carried into Execution, by killing and burying the Number of One Hundred and Forty-two Cattle;—That the said Sheriff Depute and Justices of the Peace, did hire proper Persons to watch and prevent all Cattle from being brought into the Town, and did give the necessary Directions to cleanse the Cow-houses, and other Places where the infected Cattle had been;—That there was Reason to believe the Infection had been brought from Holland in the Packages of uncustomed or prohibited Goods, which had been smuggled into that Part of the Kingdom.—And whereas by an Act passed in this present Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons with respect to Advising or Carrying into Execution His Majesty's Orders of Council made for preventing the Spreading of a contagious Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle, and for rendring the same valid and effectual, and for preventing Suits in consequence thereof, and to authorize the continuing, extending, and executing the same for a further Time;"—His Majesty is empowered, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to extend His Orders issued upon the seventh and fourteenth Days of December last, for preventing the Spreading of the said infectious Distemper in the County of Southampton, to all such Counties and Places in Great-Britain as His Majesty, in His great Wisdom, shall judge most expedient and effectual to prevent the Spreading of such infectious Distemper; —His Majesty, taking the said Letters into Consideration, and approving the Steps already taken, is graciously pleased to confirm the Assurance given to the Owners of the Cattle which have been killed, of an Indemnification; and His Majesty, deeming it of the utmost Importance that such further Steps should be taken, as may appear to be necessary to prevent the Spreading of the said infectious Distemper, that has already broke out, or may hereafter break out, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Sheriff Depute, or Substitute in the County of Banff, do call a Meeting of the Justices of the Peace of the said County of Banff, to be held in the Town of Portsoy, or at any convenient Place near thereto; and that the said Sheriff Depute, or Substitute, and Justices of the Peace so assembled, the Number of Justices not being less than three, do ascertain the Value of the Cattle already killed, from the Appretiations made of them, or in any other Manner that to them may appear the most proper, for discovering the just Value thereof, and of the Expence unavoidably incurred in preventing the Spreading of the Distemper; and that they do make up an Account thereof, and certify the same by a Writing under their Hands, the Sheriff Depute or Substitute being always one who shall subscribe the said Writing.—And it is further ordered, that the said Sheriff Depute or Substitute, and any three or more of the said Justices of Peace of the said County of Banff, or the Sheriff Depute or Substitute, and any three or more of the Justices of Peace of any other County in Scotland, within which the said Infectious Distemper shall appear, may meet together and order such Steps to be taken, as to them shall seem the most likely to stop and prevent the Spreading of the said Distemper, where it is now broke out, or where it may hereafter break out, by the due Execution of the following Directions; particularly if they judge it necessary to buy up all Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers, and Heifers, whether infected or not, in those Places within which, in their Judgment, the Infection shall have broke out or spread to, at a Price not exceeding their fair and full Value, to be ascertained by the Report of two or more Persons, whom they shall appoint to appretiate the said Cattle upon Oath; and to give Orders, that the Cattle, so bought and appretiated, shall be immediately killed, and their Carcasses and Hides buried and treated in all Respects in the Manner prescribed by an Order of His late Majesty in Council, dated the 22d of March 1747. And in Case there should be any Owner or Owners of Cattle, so regardless of the Publick Welfare, as to refuse to sell such their Cattle at the Prices which they shall be appretiated at, that the said Sheriff Depute or Sheriff Substitute, and any three or more Justices of the Peace of the County, may cause such Cattle to be nevertheless killed and treated as aforesaid—But His Majesty is pleased to declare, That it is not intended that the Powers contained in the said Order of the 22d of March 1747, should be revived by this present Order, other than those which regard the Treating

[Price Three-Pence.]

Treating of the Cattle when killed, and the Preventing the Driving or Removing any Horned Cattle, that ſhall be within the Compaſs of one Mile of any Infected Place, unleſs from one Paſture to another, or to Water, or for the Purpoſe of Slaughtering ſuch Cattle; and that ſuch Cattle be not, on any Pretence whatſoever, permitted to be removed farther than one Mile from ſuch Infected Place—And it is further ordered, That the Sheriff Deputes or Subſtitutes, and Juſtices, who may meet for the Purpoſe of Executing theſe His Majeſty's Orders, ſhall at ſuch Meetings from Time to Time, make up a diſtinct Account of the Cattle voluntarily ſold by the Owners, and of the Cattle that ſhall be killed without the Owners Conſent, from the Appretiations to be made of them in the Manner before directed, and of all ſuch unavoidable Expence incurred in Executing their Directions for preventing the Spreading of the ſaid Diſtemper; and after certifying the Amount thereof by a Writing under their Hands, the Sheriff Depute or Subſtitute being always one who certifies the ſame, ſhall tranſmit the ſaid Accounts, Certificates, and Appretiations, to the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and ſhall communicate from Time to Time to this Board, what they ſhall have done in Obedience to this Order—And His Majeſty, with the like Advice of His Privy Council, hereby orders the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury to iſſue ſuch Sums from Time to Time as may be neceſſary to pay all Charges and Expences occaſioned by the Execution of this Order, and that ſhall be certified to them in Manner before directed.

Rome, March 31. The Pope has not only conveyed his Thanks to the King of Pruſſia by the Means of his Agent at this Court, but, by a Brief directed to the Archbiſhop of Prague, has ordered him to renew his Acknowledgments to his Majeſty, for having permitted that Prelate to inſpect into the Roman Catholick Churches in the County of Glatz in Sileſia.

A few Days ago arrived in this City from Fermo, Prince Xavier of Saxony, who travels incog. by the Name of Count Garzick: He lodges at an Inn; and though he declined receiving the Viſits of many Cardinals who went thither, he has ſince accepted of the Invitations which Cardinal Bernis, Cardinal Orſini, and others, have made to him to Dinner; and on the 24th Inſtant he was introduced to an Audience of the Pope by Cardinal John Francis Albani. Some Days after the Marchioneſs Spinucci arrived at Rome, and lodges with the Prince.

The Empreſs-Queen has been pleaſed to honour Signor Batoni, the celebrated Painter in this City, with a Diploma, raiſing him and his Heirs to the Rank of Nobility; and enabling them to be Competitors for Noble Employments in her Dominions; and has aſſigned to him the Arms which he is to bear for the future. Signor Batoni has finiſhed another Portrait of the Emperor and the Great Duke at full Length, which is to be ſent to Vienna.

Cardinal de Solis has cauſed to be notified in Form to the College of Cardinals, by M. Aguirre, his Arrival in this Capital, with the Character of Miniſter Plenipotentiary, and Protector of the Kingdoms of Spain at this Court.

The Pope, as a Token of his Friendſhip for, and former Intimacy with M. de Roda, then the Spaniſh Miniſter at this Court, and now Secretary of State at Madrid, has preſented him with his Portrait in a Ring ſet round with Diamonds.

The Prince Stigliano Colonna has ſent to his Son, who reſides here, two managed Horſes to be preſented to the Pope for his own Uſe.

On the 25th Inſtant (being Lady-day) the Pope, for his particular Devotion, attended by his whole Retinue, Guards, Prelates, Princes, &c. in a Cavalcade, went from the Quirinal to the Minerva, riding a managed Horſe belonging to the late Prince Roſpiglioſi, preſented to him by the Princeſs Pallavicini.

On the 28th, by a Decree from the Congregation to inſpect new Books, twenty Books of Engliſh, Dutch, French, and Italian Authors have been condemned and prohibited.

Florence, April 7. The Time of the Great Ducheſs's Lying-in drawing near, the Court is removed for that Purpoſe from the Palace in the City, to that called the Imperiale, at a ſmall Diſtance from the Town. Many Ladies are arrived here from Vienna, to attend her Royal Highneſs on that Occaſion.

Laſt Week Count Joſeph Kaunitz arrived here from Vienna, for the Benefit of his Health.

On the 28th paſt the Great Duke cauſed an Edict to be publiſhed, by which he annuls the Privilege which the Knights of the Order of St. Stephen have hitherto enjoyed of an Exemption from Taxes and other Publick Impoſts.

Turin, April 7. The King of Sardinia is now much better, and propoſes to ride out as ſoon as the Weather will permit, as that Exerciſe has always been of great Service to his Majeſty.

St. James's, April 14, 1770.

Whereas it hath been humbly repreſented to the King, that two anonymous Incendiary Letters, the one dated March 29th, the other April 10th, 1770, and directed to the Dean of Weſtminſter, have been received by him, repeatedly threatening, with moſt horrid Oaths and Imprecations, to ſet the ſaid Dean's Houſe and Stables on Fire, and to have his Life by the firſt Opportunity, if he does not make a Door for People to paſs through Dean's Yard into St. Ann's Lane; (which is not in his Power to do, the Wall and Ground being the Property of other Perſons;) and avowing, that they were the ſame Men who lately broke through a Wall there for that Purpoſe: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in writing and ſending the ſaid incendiary Letters, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon or Perſons who actually wrote the ſaid Letters) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Reverend the Dean of Weſtminſter doth hereby promiſe a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, (except as before excepted;) to be paid by Mr. Benjamin Fidoe, Clerk of the Works at Weſtminſter Abbey, on the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.
